*Il nome Lyrae si ispira ad una stella della costellazione della Lira. L'ensemble è costituito dagli allievi più grandi della scuola di arpa celtica Arpeggi di Bologna e diretto da Marianne Gubri.
Durante la quarantena della primavera 2020, non potendo ritrovarsi per suonare i brani del loro repertorio, hanno cominciato a studiare improvvisazione e composizione, dando poi alla luce a questa piccola raccolta, quasi per scherzo. Ne fanno omaggio a tutti gli arpisti che vorranno leggerli e suonarli.
Si sono esibiti in Italia per il Bologna Harp Festival, al Ridotto del Teatro Comunale di Ferrara, al Giardino degli Angeli (Castel San Pietro Terme), per il Festival Sognambula (LI), al Teatro Ridotto di Bologna, al Planetario di San Giovanni in Persiceto (BO)…, in Francia per le Rencontres Internationales de Harpe Celtique de Dinan, al Festival Harpes au Max e negli USA per il Wonder Festival.

The name Lyrae is inspired by a star in the Lira constellation. The ensemble is made up of the older students of the celtic harp school Arpeggi in Bologna (Italy) and directed by Marianne Gubri.
During the 2020 spring quarantine, unable to meet and play the tunes of their repertoire, they began to study improvisation and composition, then they produced this small collection, almost as a joke. They pay tribute to all harpists who want to read them.
They performed in Italy for the Bologna Harp Festival, at the Ridotto of the Municipal Theater of Ferrara, and many other festivals…, in France for the Rencontres Internationales de Harpe Celtique de Dinan, at the Harpes au Max Festival and in the USA for the Wonder Festival.
